

The Princess's Man OST (2)

Acum aproximativ o lună vă prezentăm ost-ul acestui sageuk în derulare, The Princess's Man, mai exact primele trei părți ale coloanei sonore. Atunci serialul ajunsese la episodul 7, și spuneam, atinsese un rating maxim de 16%, iar acum, ajuns deja la episodul 16, ratingul maxim atins a fost 21,8%. Între timp au mai apărut trei părți din ost, care conțin melodii în același stil ca și primele. A patra parte a ost-ului conține două melodii, Missing You aparținând lui Park Jung Min de la SS501, iar cealaltă, Tear Flower semnată Lee Sung Yeol.

Coperta ost part 4 Park Jung Min – Missing You Versuri: It's the end of a crazy love Even though I'm dying I'm happy I loved you And you loved me We loved just by love The world tried to stop you and me Saying our love will end in tears They were all liars How can you say "I love you" Without tears? I long for your love I long for all of you Because it's a love that I fell too deep in Already I've been longing for you Longing for you until I've gone crazy It's obvious, finally, you let me into your heart Crying at the end of love Even though I'm foolish, those words seem true Often you cry You cry all the time Since that moment when I let go you in tears I long for your love I long for all of you Because it's a love that I fell too deep in Already I've been longing for you Longing for you until I've gone crazy It's obvious, finally, You let me into your heart My love is frightening Love is frightening Even though you just momentarily ago went away When I want to go crazy When I want to see you so bad I could die Closing my eyes, I long for our love again Longing again and again Lee Sung Yeol – Tear Flower Versuri: A love that closes it's eyes A cold love Even if rain falls, even if snow falls The longing doesn't thaw But Even if I love you You are you I am me We must live with that Why do we love? My memory like ice My crazy feelings Why do I love you? Now with a silent breath I hold in tears "Everything's fine" I said I am soaked with the tears you cried As I threw you to the end of my heart A love that closes it's eyes A cold love Even if rain falls, even if snow falls The longing doesn't thaw But Even if I love you You are you I am me We must live with that Even though I try so hard to hold onto My remaining memories of you Now there is nothing Though it was just once Holding your cold heart In darkness it went off. Love is calling your name Wilting and wilting In longing and longing Being fed a tear flower Even if I love you You are you I am me We must live with that Partea cinci a coloanei sonore con?ine o singur? melodie, intitulat? Longing, ?i cântat? de Yoon Wha Jae In.

Coperta ost part 5 Yoon Wha Jae In – Longing Versuri: Those trembling tears were because of one person Was it you who turned around and smiled? How are you even able to erase the memories Of holding my heart filled with hesitation? I guess it's too late I guess that's it. Am I fading away into nothing? I guess you are erasing memories of me Your eyes are filling with tears and washing them away This love that is embedded in your heart Rather than telling me to be happy You, you who only loved me, is dying Like a wound because of this silly lingering I cannot even breathe, what can I do? I guess it's late I guess that's it. Am I fading away into nothing? I guess you are erasing memories of me Your eyes are filling with tears and washing them away This love that is embedded in your heart Rather than telling me to be happy You, you who only loved me, is dying The time gone by is stinging No matter how much I seem to cry I cannot reach you My love, My heart Call out anxiously for you I love you I love you Are you hearing me? My heart that loves too much I don't know what I should do with it This love that is embedded in my heart Rather than telling myself to be happy I, who only loved you, am dying One cannot live without the other A ?asea ?i ultima parte a ost-ului, deocamdat?, con?ine de asemenea o melodie, interpretat? de Bak Wan Gyu, ?i intitulat? One Day Love.

Coperta ost part 6 Bak Wan Gyu – One Day Love Versuri: Even if the sad fate's shadow covers me I can't get rid of myself who loved you The person whom I feel like I can catch if I close both of my eyes The person whom I can feel even if I can't see The relationship that we established while alive Can I have it even after death? My lingering feelings that loved you My dreams to start over I don't even have a heart to feel more pain Even if I want you and want you again You, I cannot see anymore I've never forgotten about you even for a single day In this life, next life Even if I can meet you I tear up because of you Why are you crying Why are we a sad fate You don't answer even if I ask I love you, I love you Until the last moment I've never forgotten about you even for a single day In this life, next life Even if I can meet you I tear up because of you Even if the sad fate's shadow covers me I can't get rid of myself who loved you Surse: Youtube, kpop7, kmusiclyrics.wordpress.com
